

justice of the peace of said county, be fined in a sum not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars; said fines to be applied to the primary school fund of Frederick county.

12. In the event of the failure or refusal of any person so convicted to pay such fine, the justice of the peace imposing said fine shall commit him to the jail of Frederick county for not less than three nor more than six months.

FREDERICK.

The Act of 1862, ch. 55, repeals section 89, and substitutes the following:

13. John Sifford, James Whitehill, and George Metzgar, are hereby appointed judges, to hold the election for mayor and aldermen, and William Bentz is hereby appointed judge for ward number one; David Frazier, judge for ward number two; Zephaniah Harrison, judge for ward number three; Lewis Medtart, judge for ward number four; John C. Hardt, judge for ward number five; David T. Bennet, judge for ward number six, and Henry Houck, judge for ward number seven, in Frederick, to hold the election for members of the common council for Frederick city, at the election to be held on the fourth Monday of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-two; and in the event of the death or refusal of any one or more of said judges to serve as such, the mayor of said city is hereby authorized to fill such vacancy; and all elections shall hereafter be held by such judge or judges, and in such manner as shall be directed from time to time by ordinance of said corporation, not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter; and should there be hereafter, at any time, one or more vacancies in the office of, or a failure to appoint any of the judges of the election, for any officer to be elected under this charter, the said mayor shall be and he is hereby authorized and empowered, and required to fill such vacancy, or to appoint said judges.

The Act of 1862, ch. 63, adds the following:

14. The mayor, aldermen, and common council of Frederick are hereby authorized and empowered to hold elections for the
